COLLEGE EAST SEXUAL ASSAULT SUSPECT ARRESTED

(San Diego) The San Diego Police Department announces the arrest of a 17-year-old male in connection with the College East sexual assault investigation. The suspect, a San Diego resident, was arrested in Rolando on the evening of August 18, 2008 after being spotted in a car traveling on El Cajon Boulevard.

Undercover detectives and patrol units were working the City Heights area of San Diego watching the male that matched the description of the suspect wanted in the August 13, 2008 sexual assault and burglary of a 47-year-old woman. Mid City patrol units, SDPD K9 officers and the SDPD ABLE helicopter conducted a stop on the vehicle at Rolando and El Cajon Boulevard. The suspect, a passenger inside, was taken into custody without incident.

The suspect was transported to SDPD headquarters where he was processed. He was later booked into Juvenile Hall for numerous sexual assault charges, first degree burglary and assault with a deadly weapon. The suspect's name cannot be released because he is a juvenile.

DNA evidence found at the scene of the burglary and sexual assault matched the suspect's DNA.
